

JERSEY FRAUD PREVENTION FORUM

Launched in 2016, the Jersey Fraud Prevention Forum (Forum) is a group of local agencies that have come together to raise awareness about frauds and scams, with the aim of helping to educate and protect Islanders. Visit fraudprevention.je for more information about our Forum members and what we do.

Word search

Are you a word search whiz? Find all the words in the puzzle and discover a bonus word.

- | | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|----------------|
| Scam | Download | Malware |
| Passphrase | Money mule | WiFi |
| Antivirus | Security | Safe |
| Firewall | Cyber | |

A	C	P	N	H	J	I	X	V	L	V	O
S	C	A	M	S	T	B	E	D	X	R	L
R	Y	S	P	E	N	F	D	W	D	Y	H
H	B	S	E	C	U	R	I	T	Y	J	K
H	E	P	J	D	O	W	N	L	O	A	D
S	R	H	H	O	T	W	I	F	I	U	K
C	P	R	E	V	E	N	T	I	O	N	N
M	V	A	N	T	I	V	I	R	U	S	W
P	B	S	A	F	E	V	T	E	C	H	S
S	U	E	S	E	M	A	L	W	A	R	E
M	Z	S	D	C	M	R	C	A	F	G	W
A	M	O	N	E	Y	M	U	L	E	B	N
W	D	V	B	H	I	M	N	L	O	U	T

Maze

Fraudsters are always on the hunt for their next victim. As a scam-smart superhero your job is really important to keep yourself, your family and friends safe from people trying to steal money and personal information. Can you beat them?

To find out the answers to all three puzzles, visit fraudprevention.je

Crossword

Can you crack the crossword? All clues are connected to scams & frauds.

Down:

- Beware of fraudsters trying to sell you bogus products over the telephone.
- Fraudsters disguise themselves as other people to trick you into giving them money. Don't get hooked!
- Another word for fraudster.
- Fraudsters mimic official telephone numbers to deceive you.

Across:

- This is better than a cure.
- Never share these with anyone or write them down.
- Look for this icon in the URL toolbar to help identify secure websites when shopping or making payments online.
- When fraudsters send you a text message to trick you into following a malicious weblink.

